ONTARIO LEGAL CONFERENCE 2027

February 2-5, 2027

CURRENT ISSUES IN ADMINISTRATIVE LAW and TRIBUNAL PRACTICE

Tuesday, February 2, 2027 | 9:15 am - 12:30 pm

Administrative law and tribunal practice continue to evolve, and it is critical to stay up to date on the most pressing development shaping this practice area today. Our faculty of distinguished practitioners will unpack the key issues, and you'll leave with practical tools and up-to-date knowledge to strength your practice in this dynamic area of law.

PROGRAM CHAIR
Jillian Siskind, Jillian Siskind Law

9:15 am	Welcome and Opening Remarks
9:20 am	Statutory Appeal or Judicial Review? • Expert insights on the proper approach for this critical decision • Challenges of parallel proceedings, including the applicable standard of review
10:05 am	AI & Algorithmic Decision Making in Administrative Bodies • How are administrative bodies using automated decision systems or tools? • Implications of AI use by adjudicators and parties • Unpacking the benefits, risks and challenges • What are the access to justice implications?
10:45 am	Inter-Sections Networking Break
11:05 am	Disclosure Rules in Tribunals • Unpacking apparent discrepancies between regulatory rules and case law for disclosure • Pitfalls to avoid with disclosure motions
11:45 am	Defending Regulatory and Licensing Proceedings • Key strategies from the first notice of investigation through to final decision and review • Ensuring procedural fairness and securing full disclosure • Strategies for challenging the evidence and standard of proof
12:25 pm	Questions and Concluding Remarks
12:30 pm	Inter-Sections Networking Lunch

REGISTER NOW

300-20 Toronto St. Toronto, ON M5C 2B8 | Toll Free: 1-800-668-8900 | Tel: 416-869-1047 | Fax: 416-642-0424